International Collaboration Supporter

$8,000

Highlight your organization's philanthropic programme by providing educational funds to support travel, registration, and accommodation fees for an attendee from an underserved region of the world. This funding will make it possible for a limited number of delegates to come and participate in this scientific event that they could not otherwise afford. Delegates will be required to submit an abstract and conduct a poster presentation. The conference Organization Committee will be responsible for the selection of these delegates.

Benefits include:

- Recognition as an International Collaboration Supporter in the conference programme book
- Recognition on the official conference Web site
- Special photo opportunity to highlight your organization's humanitarian programme
- (2) complimentary conference registrations
